

What do educators say about Lawyers for Literacy?

"I've had students whose attendance improved when they knew it was required for them. I've never had a student who didn't look forward to reading with his or her mentor."

- Ms. Dahl, 3rd Grade Teacher,
Sanderlin Elementary

"I have nothing but positive things to say about Lawyers for Literacy. They are always there and really work hard to build relationships with our kids. The students arrive in the media center with their lunch so excited to read with their friend. Finally, they do a terrific job of celebrating our children's success with a celebration at the end of the term. We are so appreciative of their support."

- Stephanie Kurleman, 3rd Grade Teacher,
Belleair Elementary

"My student that is a part of lawyers for literacy loves it. Each week she counts down the days until Thursdays when she meets with her lawyer. She has shared with me her excitement of reading a book one on one. Also, she has shared that her lawyer always asks about her day. She enjoys the time and is always asking for reading time to work on her book they are reading together."

- Jennifer Cocio, 3rd grade Teacher,
74th Street Elementary

"My homeroom student that is going to Lawyers for Literacy this year told me how much he enjoyed the time reading with the lawyer after the first visit. He reminded me the following week first thing in the morning that it was his day to read!"

- Rebecca Caroll, 3rd Grade Teacher,
74th Street Elementary

"I saw it as an opportunity to give extra support to some of my "bubble" students. It means that AND so much more to these students. They look forward to each Tuesday they meet and make sure to remind me if I forget to notate when it's their "LFL Club" day on the board. Through Lawyers for Literacy, they are also mentored and are truly excited to share some special reading during their lunch in the media center. My group of students have been proud to share with their class what they have been working on during our class morning meeting. Thank you Lawyers for Literacy for supporting our students!"

- Tiffany Quattlebaum, 3rd Grade Teacher,
Belleair Elementary

"Lawyers for Literacy has helped those students who just needed that extra bit of attention to do well. The kids have loved their mentors."

- Brandie Williams-Macon, Principal,
Jamerson Elementary
